TOPIC 1

What a Campaign Really Is

A quick refresher, then we build.

PRESENTATION

What Is a Marketing Campaign?

One message, sent on purpose, to one group of people, over a set period of time.

Everything else is just posting.

A Campaign vs. Random Posting

RANDOM POSTING

New idea every time

No date to build toward

Nobody remembers it

A CAMPAIGN

Same message, many times

Everything points at one date

People remember it

The Six Parts of Any Campaign

A goal

An audience

An offer

A message

Channels

A deadline

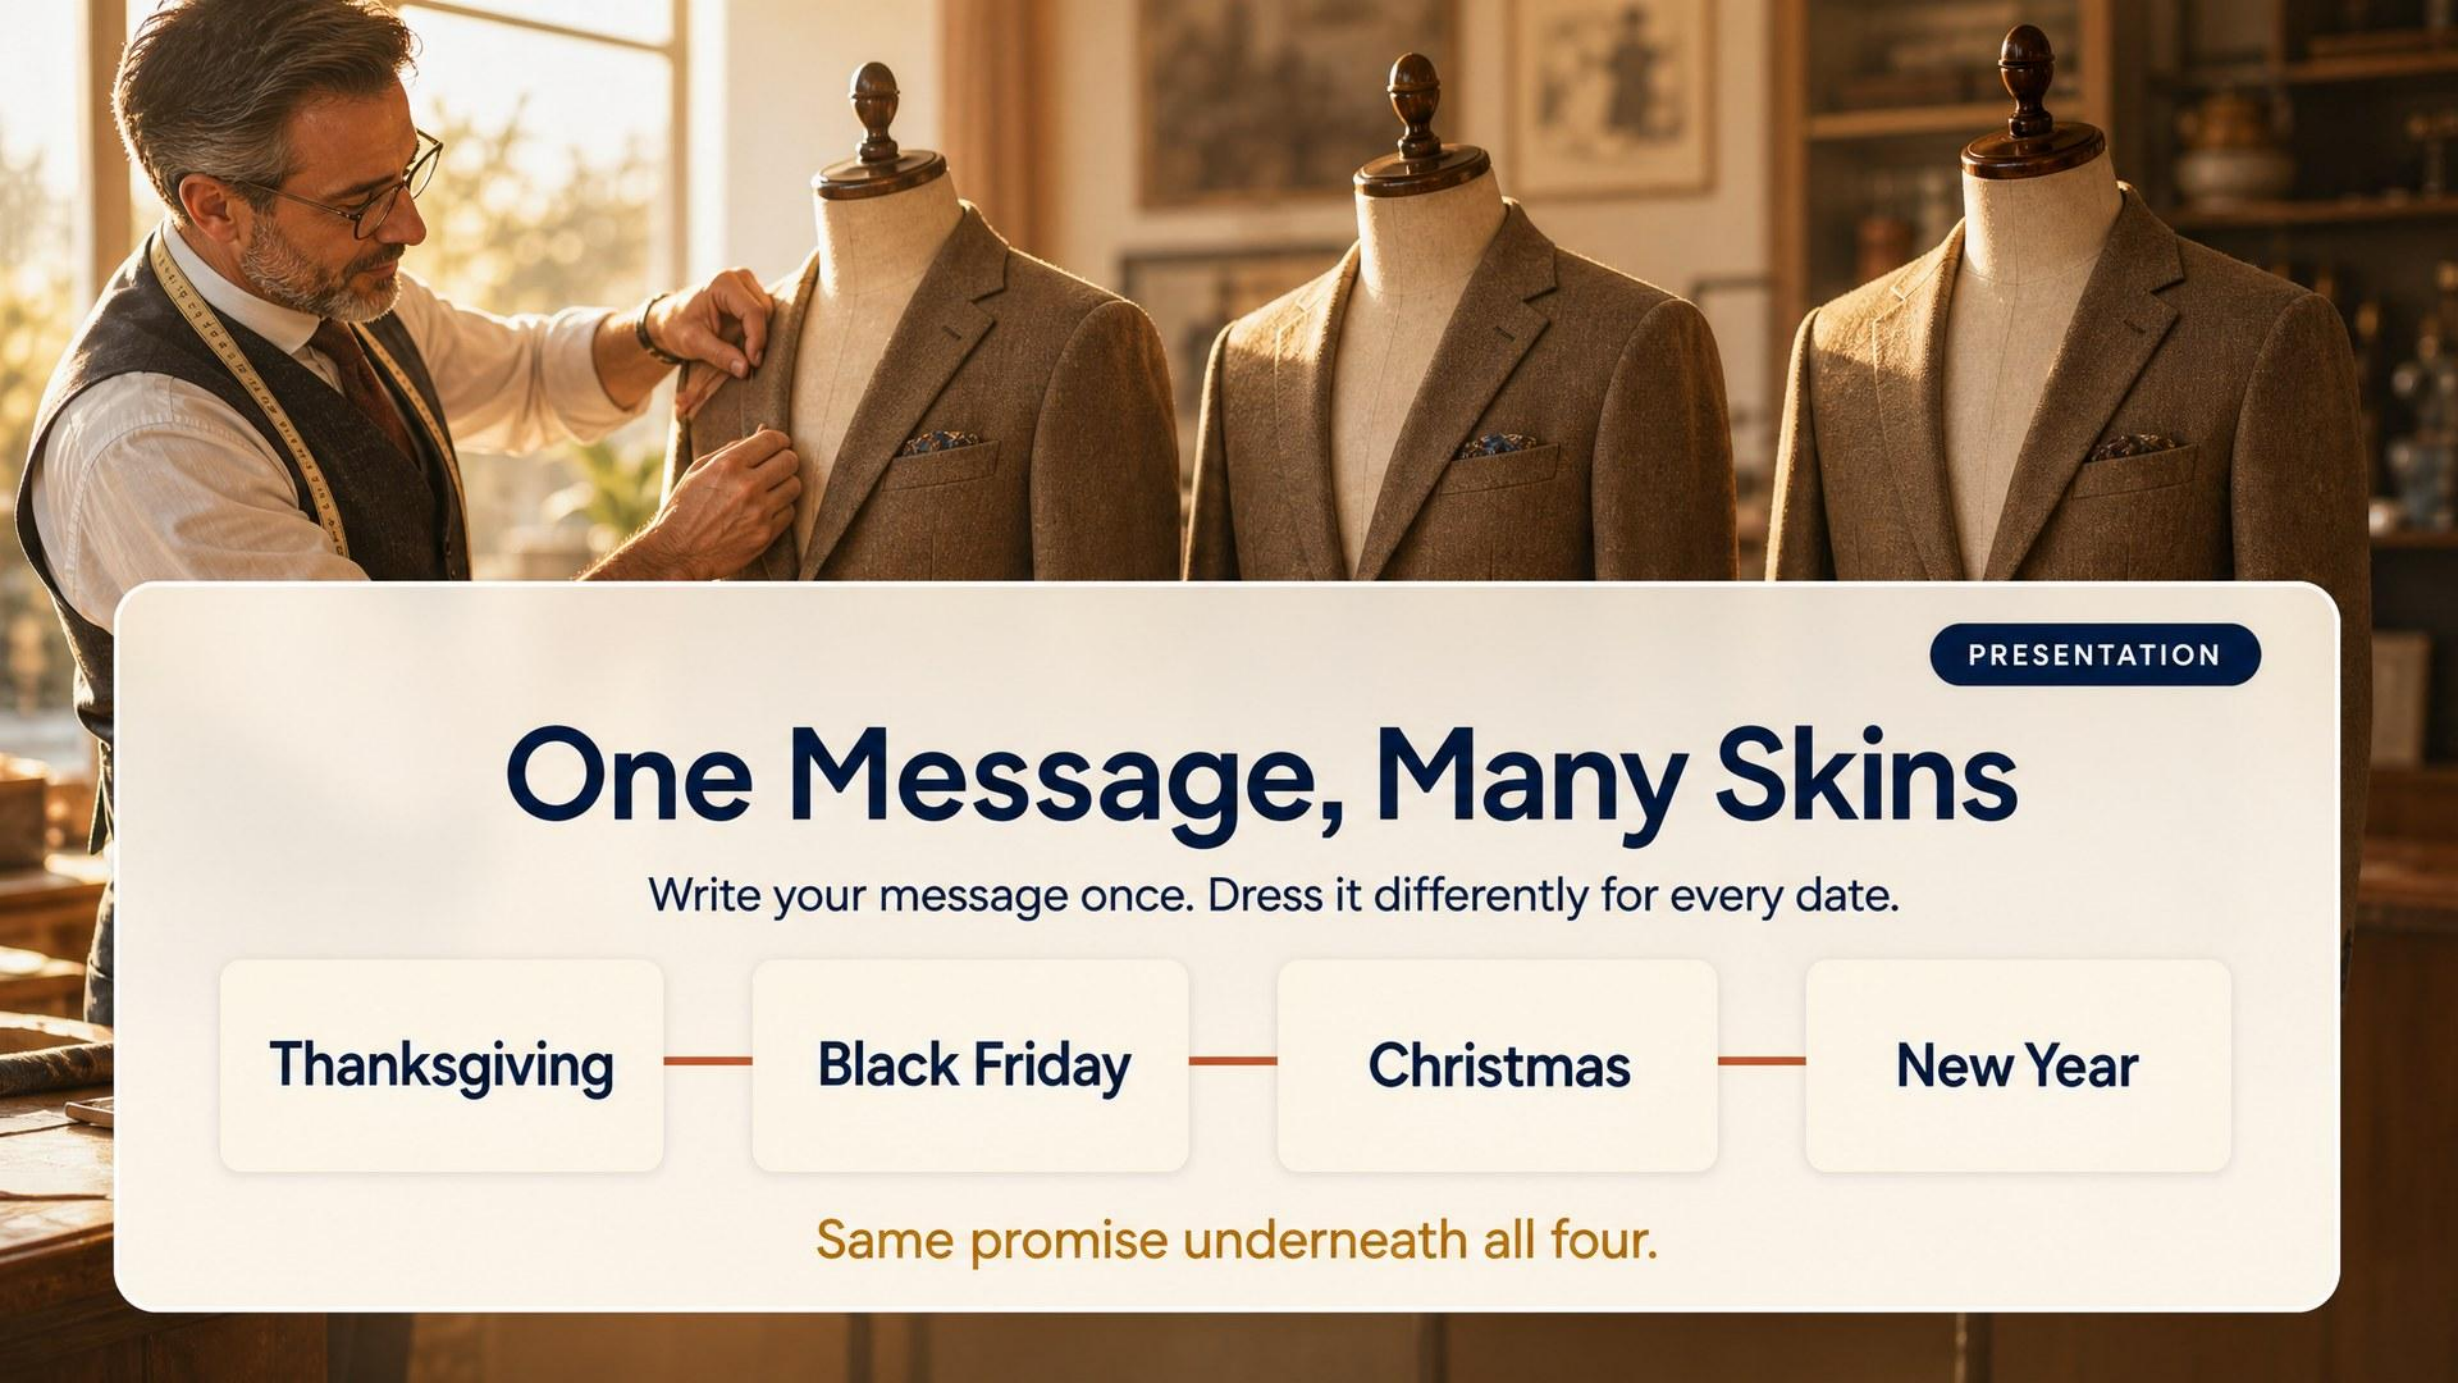

PRESENTATION

Four Questions. That Is the Whole Day.

1. To whom?
2. When?
3. What is the offer?
4. What is the plan?

PRESENTATION

One Message, Many Skins

Write your message once. Dress it differently for every date.

Thanksgiving

Black Friday

Christmas

New Year

Same promise underneath all four.

CASE STUDY

REI Closed on Black Friday

One message they kept saying for years: go outside instead.

2.7B

in 24 hours

+23%

You do not have to close. You need one idea worth repeating.

A woman with brown hair tied in a bun, wearing glasses and a red button-down shirt over a white top, is sitting at a wooden desk. She is looking at a laptop screen and has her hands on the keyboard. On the desk, there is also an open notebook and a small ceramic cup. The room is brightly lit by natural light from a window on the left, creating a warm, cozy atmosphere.
